

Judgment Sunday (Meatfare Sunday)

The foregoing two parables -- especially that of the Prodigal Son -- have presented to us God's extreme goodness and love for man. But lest certain persons, putting their confidence in this alone, live carelessly, squandering upon sin the time given them to work out their salvation, and death suddenly snatch them away, the most divine Fathers have appointed this day's feast commemorating Christ's impartial Second Coming, through which we bring to mind that God is not only the Friend of man, but also the most righteous Judge, Who recompenses to each according to his deeds.

It is the aim of the holy Fathers, through bringing to mind that fearful day, to rouse us from the slumber of carelessness unto the work of virtue, and to move us to love and compassion for our brethren. Besides this, even as on the coming Sunday of Cheese-fare we commemorate Adam's exile from the Paradise of delight -- which exile is the beginning of life as we know it now -- it is clear that today's is reckoned the last of all feasts, because on the last day of judgment, truly, everything of this world will come to an end.

All foods, except meat and meat products, are allowed during the week that follows this Sunday.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(In English and Phonetic Arabic)

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed-be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Kontakion of Last Judgment I

When Thou comest, O God, to earth with glory, and all creatures tremble before Thee, and the river of fire floweth before the Altar, and the books are opened and sins revealed, deliver me then from that unquenchable fire, and make me worthy to stand at Thy right hand, O righteous Judge.

The Epistle

*The Lord is my strength and my praise. The Lord chastising hath chastised me:
But he hath not delivered me over to death.*

The Reading is from Saint Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

8:8-9:2

BRETHREN, food will not commend us to God, we are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. Only take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if any one sees you a man of knowledge, at table in an idol's temple, might he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? And so by your knowledge this weak man is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. Thus, sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of my brother's falling, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to fall. Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

The Holy Gospel

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew 25:31-46

The Lord said, "When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. Then the King will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see thee hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to thee?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.' And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

إنجيل اليوم: متى
(ص 25: ع 31-46)

The Invocation of the All Holy Spirit

Dialogue between priest and people

Priest: Again we offer unto Thee this reasonable and unbloody service, and we beseech and pray thee and supplicate thee. Send down thy Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts here spread forth.

And the priest makes the sign of the cross over the Holy Gifts thrice, saying:

Priest And make this Bread the precious Body of thy Christ.

People: Amen!

And the priest blessing, says:

Priest: And that which is in this Cup, the precious Blood of thy Christ:

People: Amen!

And the priest, blessing both the Holy Things says:

Priest: Changing them by thy Holy Spirit.

Priest and people: Amen! Amen! Amen!.

CONFESSION

Father Michael is offering the faithful two ways to have your confession heard

- ✠ A private appointment can be made
- ✠ Sunday during Orthros at 9:00 AM

This is a very important part of our Christian faith and MUST be practiced regularly

WE ENTER TO WORSHIP...

WE DEPART TO SERVE...

PROPER ETIQUETTE WHILE IN CHURCH

- ✠ Turn off cell phones before entering church.
- ✠ There should be no talking or chewing gum while in church.
- ✠ No water or any other beverage should be consumed while in church.
- ✠ The only persons permitted behind the Holy Altar are the Clergy and Altar servers.
- ✠ No walking up or down the isle if the Epistle or Gospel is being read.
- ✠ The only persons that should be standing in the back are the ushers to keep order.
- ✠ If you are planning to partake of Holy Communion, please prepare yourself properly.

THE PROPER WAY TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION

It's as easy as 1,2,3...

1. Approach the chalice with reverence with arms crossed over your chest.
2. State your name for the priest
3. Tilt your head back and open your mouth to avoid touching the spoon with your mouth.

Following these three simple steps will ensure us that we are receiving Holy Communion in the correct order prescribed by the Orthodox Church and at the same time gives consideration to our fellow parishioners.

TODAY'S INSPIRATION

With all your power, ask the Lord for humility and brotherly love, because God freely gives His grace for love towards one's brother.

Do an experiment on yourself:

one day ask God for love towards your brother, and another day - live without love. You will see the difference.

(St. Silouan the Athonite, Writings, XVI.8)

House Blessings

Traditionally, houses are blessed annually on, or shortly after, the Feast of Theophany. The blessing of homes by these holy waters maintains the spiritual association between the family church and the parish, as well as again providing for the sharing of God's spiritual gifts. House blessings should not be overlooked, for it is in this way that the grace of God is extended to individual dwellings.

Therefore, Khourieh Adma and/or Father Michael will be calling you to schedule a visit to bless your home throughout the church year. If you are in need or would like a visit and haven't heard from Khourieh Adma, then please call her to schedule one at 419-475-7054

Father Michael looks forward to getting reacquainted with those whom he knows and meeting those he has never met.

"THAT THEY MAY ALL BE ONE, JUST AS YOU, FATHER, ARE IN ME, AND I IN YOU."
